Because the allegations in Paragraph 52 of the Complaint assert legal conclusions, Wendy's is not required to respond and, on that basis, Wendy's denies the allegations set forth in Paragraph 52 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 53.

Wendy's denies that "Defendants have caused harm to Class members residing in this District." Because the remaining allegations of Paragraph 53 of the Complaint assert legal conclusions, Wendy's is not required to respond and, on that basis, Wendy's denies the allegations set forth in Paragraph 53 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 54.

Wendy's denies the heading immediately preceding Paragraph 54 of the Complaint. Wendy's admits that there have been reports of cyber-attacks at other companies related to payment card information, but Wendy's lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form an opinion as to the truth of the allegations in the first and second sentences of Paragraph 54 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies them. Wendy's denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 54 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 55.

The allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 55 of the Complaint are vague and ambiguous, particularly the phrase "large portion." Wendy's therefore lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in the first sentence of Paragraph 55 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies them. Wendy's admits that financial institutions that issue payment cards (often referred to as "Issuers") generally do so pursuant to contracts with the card brands such as Visa and MasterCard. The card brands generally contract with other financial institutions that facilitate payment card transactions (“Acquirers”). Acquirers also contract with merchants that accept payment cards from their customers to pay for transactions. Except as expressly admitted herein, Wendy’s denies the allegations in Paragraph 55 of the Complaint on the grounds that it lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations because the allegations are vague and generic. Further answering, Wendy’s denies the allegation implicit in Paragraph 55 of the Complaint that Wendy’s is the “merchant” in any transaction between a customer and a franchisee.

RESPONSE TO NO. 56.

The reference in Paragraph 56 to the “four major steps” is vague and ambiguous. Wendy’s therefore lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 56 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies them. Further answering, Wendy’s denies the allegation implicit in Paragraph 56 of the Complaint that Wendy’s is the “merchant” in any transaction between a customer and a franchisee.

RESPONSE TO NO. 57.

The allegations in Paragraph 57 of the Complaint are vague and ambiguous because they do not allege conduct by Wendy’s but refer instead to “merchants” generally. The allegations in Paragraph 57 of the Complaint are also vague and ambiguous because they refer to information “typically” stored by unidentified “merchants,” as well as unidentified “other reasons” merchants “may” collect “other” information. Thus, Wendy’s lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 57 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies them.

RESPONSE TO NO. 58.

Wendy's admits that it uses certain information collected from customers to accept payment card transactions in connection with its sales to customers and other uses consistent with its Information Security Policy. Except as expressly admitted herein, Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 58 of the Complaint.

Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 60 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 61.

Wendy's denies that it owes the Plaintiffs any legal duty alleged in the Complaint. The allegations in Paragraph 61 of the Complaint are also vague and ambiguous because they refer to a non-exhaustive list, including unidentified "industry standards" and unidentified federal law. Wendy's therefore lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form an opinion as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 61 of the Complaint and, on that additional basis, denies them. Wendy's denies any remaining allegations of Paragraph 61 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 62.

Wendy's denies the heading immediately preceding Paragraph 62 of the Complaint. Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 62 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 63.

RESPONSE TO NO. 65.

Wendy's admits that in late January 2016, it reported that it was investigating "unusual activity" and that "it is difficult to determine with certainty the nature or scope of any potential incident." Except as expressly admitted herein, Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 65 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 66.

Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 66 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 67.

Wendy's lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form an opinion as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 67 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies them.

RESPONSE TO NO. 68.

Because the allegations in Paragraph 68 of the Complaint purport to describe or quote the content of a 10-K filing, Wendy's states that the 10-K filing is the best source of its full content and context and, to the extent the allegations in Paragraph 68 do not represent the 10-K filing's full content and context, Wendy's denies the allegations. Wendy's denies any remaining allegations in Paragraph 68 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 71.

Wendy's admits that it issued a press release on May 11, 2016 on Form 8-K. Wendy's denies the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 71 of the Complaint. Because the allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 71 merely purport to describe or quote the content of a Form 8-K, Wendy's states that the Form 8-K is the best source of its full content and context and, to the extent the allegations in the third sentence of Paragraph 71 do not represent the Form 8-K's full content and context, Wendy's denies the allegations. Wendy's denies the allegations in the final sentence of Paragraph 71 as well as any remaining allegations in Paragraph 71 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 72.

Wendy's admits that it issued a press release on June 9, 2016 on Form 8-K. Wendy's denies the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 72 of the Complaint. Because the remaining allegations in Paragraph 72 merely purport to describe or quote the content of a Form 8-K, Wendy's states that the Form 8-K is the best source of its full content and context and, to the extent the allegations in Paragraph 72 do not represent the Form 8-K's full content and context, Wendy's denies the allegations.

RESPONSE TO NO. 73.

Wendy's denies the allegations in Paragraph 73 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 74.

Because the allegations in Paragraph 74 merely purport to describe or quote the content of a press release, Wendy's states that the press release is the best source of its full content and context and, to the extent the allegations in Paragraph 74 do not represent the press release's full content and context, Wendy's denies the allegations. Wendy's denies any remaining allegations in Paragraph 74 of the Complaint.

RESPONSE TO NO. 75.

Wendy's admits that in its July 7, 2016 Press Release it stated that: "The Company believes the criminal cyberattacks resulted from service providers' remote access credentials being compromised, allowing access – and the ability to deploy malware – to some franchisees' point of sale systems." Wendy's also admits that in its July 7, 2016 Press Release it stated that "[t]he investigation has confirmed that criminals used malware believed to have been effectively deployed on some Wendy's franchisee systems starting in late fall 2015." Wendy's lacks sufficient information or knowledge to form an opinion as to the truth of the allegations in the second sentence of Paragraph 75 of the Complaint and, on that basis, denies those allegations.
